INDEX

TO THE

FIRST THIRTY-THREE VOLUMES

OF THE

YALE LITERARY MAGAZINE.

"Dum mens grata manet, nomen laudesque YALENSES
Cantabunt SOBOLES, unanimique PATRES."

FEBRUARY, 1836—JULY, 1868.

Compiled by L. H. Bagg, '69.

NEW HAVEN:
TUTTLE, MOREHOUSE & TAYLOR, STEAM PRINTERS.
MDCCCLXVIII.

NOTE.

Roman and Arabic numerals in succession refer respectively to volume and page. Brackets indicate the "second issue" of 1864. The numerals after each Editor's name respectively, signify the year of his class' graduation and the volume with which he began his labors. The star denotes decease. In order to make the list of DeForest orators complete, two are included (in parentheses) whose productions were not printed. The list of Townsend essayists is by no means complete, as of late years only a few of their essays have been published. Complete sets of the Magazine may be found in the College Library, in the Linonia and Brothers Libraries, and in the British Museum. They are also contained in the private libraries of Mr. W. L. Kingsley, '43, editor of the New Englander, and Mr. G. D. Miller, '69. It is possible that other complete sets are in existence, but the above are the only ones known to us. As only 300 impressions of this Index are printed, subscribers will do well to preserve their copies. The next edition will appear at the close of the LXVIth Volume, July 15, 1901.

THE

YALE LITERARY MAGAZINE.

CONDUCTED BY

The Students of Yale College.

The THIRTY-FOURTH VOLUME of this Magazine commences with October, 1868. Three Numbers are published during every Term, and nine Numbers complete an Annual Volume.

Contributions to its pages are solicited upon any subject of interest to students.

In the MEMORABILIA YALENSIA it is intended to make a complete record of the current events of College Life, and also to give such historical and statistical facts as may be generally interesting.

TERMS.—$3.00 a Volume, payable in advance. Single numbers, 35 cents each; for sale at the College Book Store.

Back numbers of the Magazine can be obtained by applying to the Editors.

 Contributors are requested to forward their articles through the Post Office. Please inclose the name in a sealed envelope, which will not be opened unless the article is used. No article can be published unless accompanied by a responsible name. Communications or remittances may be addressed to the "EDITORS OF THE YALE LITERARY MAGAZINE," New Haven, Conn.
